BARNEY MALLOY

Barney was born in Chicago on September 2, 1928, and was much influenced by his many childhood years in Jackson, TN. After graduating from Jackson High School in 1946, Barney joined the Army, serving at Ft. Benning, GA, for 18 months. Returning to Jackson, he worked at the local A&P while studying pre-med at Lambuth College. In the summer of 1950, before enrolling at Vanderbilt Medical School, he sold Bibles door-to-door in Horry County, SC, in order to earn money to buy a microscope, a requirement of medical school at the time. While at Vanderbilt, Barney developed a fascination with psychiatry that would guide his life and career.

In the fall of 1958, Barney became a staff psychiatrist in the Medical Office of the Central Intelligence Agency, where he worked for 31 years, ultimately serving as Chief of the Psychiatric Division and where, among other things, he was tasked with creating psychiatric studies of foreign leaders.

It was because of his expertise that Barney found himself embroiled in the Watergate affair, when the Nixon White House directed him to provide a psychiatric study on Daniel Ellsberg, who had previously leaked the Pentagon Papers. As Barney later testified to the Senate Watergate Committee, conspirator Howard Hunt told him that he hoped to use information in the study to ruin Ellsberg's public reputation. Barney advised Hunt and others that the Agency should not be involved in intelligence work on American citizens, and the CIA eventually awarded him the Agency Intelligence Medal of Merit for his ethical behavior.

After his retirement from the CIA in 1989, Barney maintained a private, part-time practice in downtown Washington until 2010, and he took great satisfaction from helping his many patients. A board-certified psychiatrist, he served as President of the Southern Psychiatric Association, was an assistant instructor at the Georgetown University Medical School for many years, and was on staff at Sibley Memorial Hospital from 1960 to 2010. He was also a member of the Metropolitan Club and the Chevy Chase Club.

The oldest of six, Barney was predeceased by Patricia Appel Malloy (Patty), his wife of 32 years, and by his brothers John, James, William and Luther and his sister Susan. He is survived by children (with his first wife Dorothy Davis Malloy) John Davis-Malloy of Washington, DC, Bernard ("Bart") Malloy, Jr. (Susan Shook) of El Cerrito, CA, and Elizabeth Malloy (Dan Sturman) of Los Angeles, CA. He is also survived by his stepchildren John Davidge III (Deborah Lott) of New York, NY, and Lancaster, NH, Nick Davidge (Victoria Dunn) of Franconia, NH, Dorsey Davidge of Washington, DC, and Katharine ("Kitty") Davidge (John Dorfman) of Newton, MA; and also by grandchildren (of John) John Davidge IV of Denver, CO, and Alexandra Davidge of New York, NY; (of Nick) Henry Davidge of Tokyo, Japan, and William Davidge (Alyse Guild) of Hampden, CT; (of Kitty) Tom Dorfman Davidge of Brighton, MA, Anna Dorfman Davidge of New York, NY, and Jamie Dorfman Davidge of Newton, MA; (of Dorsey) Cate Chapin and Daisy Chapin, both of Chicago, IL; and (of Bart) John ("Jack") and Matthew Malloy ("Matt") of El Cerrito, CA.

He also leaves behind a devoted friend and caregiver, Marie Jim Cabangon.

Barney was cultured, well-traveled, and an avid genealogist with a fascination for early American history. His research led him to join the General Society of Colonial Wars, a group whose members can trace their descent from forebears who served in one of the original 13 colonies prior to the American Revolution. It also led him to the happy discovery of, and a close and active relationship with, his "long-lost cousins" in Westport, Ireland. He served as the wise old grey head for over 50 nieces, nephews, and their children, and he will be very much missed by them.

VOLUNTARY

INTROIT

Go, silent friend

Londonderry Air

Sung by the choir.

arr. Frederick Silvester (1901–1966)

Go, silent friend, your life has found its ending: to dust returns your weary mortal frame.
God, who before birth called you into being, now calls you hence, his accent still the same.
Go, silent friend, your life in Christ is buried; for you he lived and died and rose again.
Close by his side your promised place is waiting where, fully known, you shall with God remain.
Go, silent friend, forgive us if we grieved you; safe now in heaven, kindly say our name.
Your life has touched us, that is why we mourn you; our lives without you cannot be the same.
Go, silent friend, we do not grudge your glory; sing, sing with joy deep praises to your Lord.
You, who believed that Christ would come back for you, now celebrate that Jesus keeps his word.

—John Bell (b. 1949)

Please stand as you are able as the procession enters.

Priest I am Resurrection and I am Life, says the Lord.
Whoever has faith in me shall have life, even though he die.
And everyone who has life,
and has committed himself to me in faith,
shall not die for ever.

As for me, I know that my Redeemer lives and that at the last he will stand upon the earth.
After my awaking, he will raise me up;
and in my body I shall see God.
I myself shall see, and my eyes behold him who is my friend and not a stranger.

For none of us has life in himself,
and none becomes his own master when he dies.
For if we have life, we are alive in the Lord,
and if we die, we die in the Lord.
So, then, whether we live or die,
we are the Lord's possession.

Happy from now on are those who die in the Lord!
So it is, says the Spirit,
for they rest from their labors.

COLLECTS

Priest The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Priest Let us pray.

O God of grace and glory, we remember before you this day our brother Bernard. We thank you for giving him to us, his family and friends, to know and to love as a companion on our earthly pilgrimage. In your boundless compassion, console us who mourn. Give us faith to see in death the gate of eternal life, so that in quiet confidence we may continue our course on earth, until, by your call, we are reunited with those who have gone before; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Most merciful God, whose wisdom is beyond our understanding: Deal graciously with Barney's family and friends in their grief. Surround them with your love, that they may not be overwhelmed by their loss, but have confidence in your goodness, and strength to meet the days to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

READING

Read by Dorsey Davidge.

Lamentations 3:22-26, 31-33

Please be seated.

The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. "The LORD is my portion," says my soul, "therefore I will hope in him." The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him. It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.

For the LORD will not reject forever. Although he causes grief, he will have compassion according to the abundance of his steadfast love; for he does not willingly afflict or grieve anyone.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 23

Led by Jack Malloy, said in unison by all.

The LORD is my shepherd; *
 I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; *
 he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; *
 he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his Name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; * for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; * thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, * and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

THE SECOND READING

Read by Julie Malloy.

1 John 3:1-2

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM

Jesu, joy of man's desiring

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685–1750)

Sung by the choir.

Jesu, joy of man's desiring, holy wisdom, love most bright, drawn by thee, our souls aspiring soar to uncreated light.
Word of God our flesh that fashioned with the fire of life impassioned, striving still to truth unknown, soaring, dying, round thy throne.

—Martin Janus (c. 1620–1682)

HOMILY

The Rev. Sarah Akes-Cardwell

THE APOSTLES' CREED

Said by all, standing as you are able.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Priest And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE PRAYERS

Led by Paul Murphy.

Intercessor For our brother Barney, let us pray to our Lord Jesus Christ who said, "I am Resurrection and I am Life."

Lord, you consoled Martha and Mary in their distress; draw near to us who mourn for Barney, and dry the tears of those who weep.

People Hear us, Lord.

Intercessor You wept at the grave of Lazarus, your friend; comfort us in our sorrow.

People Hear us, Lord.

Intercessor You raised the dead to life; give to our brother eternal life.

People Hear us, Lord.

Intercessor You promised paradise to the thief who repented; bring our brother to the joys of heaven.

People Hear us, Lord.

Intercessor Comfort us in our sorrows at the death of our brother; let our faith be our consolation, and eternal life our hope.

The priest continues

Father of all, we pray to you for Barney, and for all those whom we love but see no longer. Grant to them eternal rest. Let light perpetual shine upon them. May his soul and the souls of all the departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

THE PEACE

Please stand as you are able.

Priest The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

THE COMMENDATION

Priest Give rest, O Christ, to your servant with your saints,

People where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing, but life everlasting.

Priest You only are immortal, the creator and maker of mankind; and we are mortal, formed of the earth, and to earth shall we return. For so did you ordain when you created me, saying, "You are dust, and to dust you shall return." All of us go down to the dust; yet even at the grave we make our song: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

People Give rest, O Christ, to your servant with your saints, where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing, but life everlasting.

Priest Into your hands, O merciful Savior, we commend your servant Barney. Acknowledge, we humbly beseech you, a sheep of your own fold, a lamb of your own flock, a sinner of your own redeeming. Receive him into the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints in light. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Priest Life is short. And we do not have too much time to gladden the hearts of those who travel the way with us. So be swift to love. Make haste to be kind. And the blessing of God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always. Amen.

HYMN 488

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart

Sung by all, standing as you are able.

1 Be thou my vi - sion, O Lord of my heart;
 2 Be thou my wis - dom, and thou my true word;
 3 High King of hea - ven, when vic - tory is won,
 all else be nought to me, save that thou art—
 I ev - er with thee and thou with me, Lord;
 may I reach hea - ven's joys, bright hea - ven's Sun!
 thou my best thought,— by day or by night,
 thou my great Fa - ther; thine own may I be;
 Heart of my heart,— what - ev - er be - fall,
 wak - ing or sleep - ing, thy pres - ence my light.
 thou in me dwell - ing, and I one with thee.
 still be my vis - ion, O Ru - ler of all.

Words: Irish, ca. 700; versified Mary Elizabeth Byrne (1880-1931); tr. Eleanor H. Hull (1860-1935), alt. Music: Slane, Irish ballad melody; adapt. The Church Hymnary, 1927; harm. David Evans (1874-1948). By permission of Oxford University Press.

THE DISMISSAL

Please stand as you are able.

Priest Let us go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia, alleluia.

People Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

VOLUNTARY

*During the voluntary, the family moves to the columbarium for the committal.
All others, please remain in the sanctuary until the conclusion of the voluntary.*

Following the service, all are invited to a reception honoring Barney's life, to be held at the Metropolitan Club (1700 H Street, NW).
