THE FIRST READING

Acts 16:9-15

Please be seated.

9 a.m. Read by Martha Ellison.

11 a.m. Read by Obi Onwuamaegbu.

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them. We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home." And she prevailed upon us.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 67

*9 a.m. Led by Annie Simonds, said responsively by half verse.
11 a.m. Chanted by the choir; setting by Kellow J. Pye (1812–1901).*

May God be merciful to us and bless us, * show us the light of his countenance and come to us.

Let your ways be known upon earth, * your saving health among all nations.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; * let all the peoples praise you.

Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, * for you judge the peoples with equity and guide all the nations upon earth.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; * let all the peoples praise you.

The earth has brought forth her increase; * may God, our own God, give us his blessing.

May God give us his blessing, * and may all the ends of the earth stand in awe of him.

(11 a.m. only) Children's Chapel in the Parish House: All who wish may gather in front of the pulpit during the hymn and will return at the Peace. Parents are encouraged to accompany children younger than three.

Sung by all, standing as you are able. Stanzas 1 & 2 will be sung before the Gospel, stanzas 3 & 4 after.

1 Come, Ho - ly Spi - rit, heaven - ly Dove, with all thy quick-ening powers; come, shed a - broad a Sa - vior's love, and that shall kin - dle ours.

Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748), alt. Music: Saint Agnes, John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876).

THE HOLY GOSPEL

John 14:23-29

Please remain standing as you are able.

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to Judas (not Iscariot), “Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me.

“I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, ‘I am going away, and I am coming to you.’ If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe.”

Priest The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Following the Gospel, all sing stanzas 3 & 4 of the gradual hymn.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Sarah Akes-Cardwell

THE NICENE CREED

Please stand as you are able.

Let us affirm our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

This is my Father's world

Ēriks Ešenvalds (b. 1977)

Sung by the choir.

This is my Father's world, and to my listening ears
all nature sings, and round me rings the music of the spheres.
This is my Father's world: I rest me in the thought of rocks and trees, of skies and seas; his hand the wonders wrought.

This is my Father's world: the birds their carols raise,
the morning light, the lily white, declare their Maker's praise.
This is my Father's world: He shines in all that's fair;
in the rustling grass I hear him pass, he speaks to me everywhere.

This is my Father's world: O let me ne'er forget that though the wrong seems oft so strong, God is the Ruler yet.
This is my Father's world: Why should my heart be sad?
The Lord is King: Let the heavens ring! God reigns; let earth be glad!

—Maltbie D. Babcock (1858–1901)

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Please remain standing as you are able.

Priest The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Priest Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Priest Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The priest continues

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS (S-128) Sung by all.

William Mathias

Ho - ly, ho - ly,
ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

Please stand or kneel as you are able. The priest continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

People We remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory.

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all, presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with St. John and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Priest And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Priest The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All persons, including children, are welcome to receive Holy Communion with us. Wait for an usher to call your pew to come forward. You will first be handed a wafer by a priest (gluten-free wafers are available by request) and then offered wine by a lay server. You may either sip the wine or dip your wafer into the wine. Receiving the bread alone is a valid way to share in the Eucharist. Parents may decide if their children receive the bread and/or wine. All may instead signal their desire to be blessed by the priest by crossing their arms over their chest.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. If you are interested in an in-person tour of St. John's Church, meet at the front of the church near the baptismal font after the 11 a.m. service. Today's guide is Susan Cardwell.

In celebration of the 50th anniversary of Capital Pride, our city is the host for this year's celebration of World Pride, with events scheduled from May 17 through June 8. Of special interest is the 16-day choral festival, which will include a concert at St. John's. Our church is a proud Partner in Harmony of the Gay Men's Chorus of Washington, DC. We look forward to hosting one of their performances, a 90-minute free concert that will include two of GMCW's ensembles, Rock Creek Singers and Seasons of Love, as well as Major Minors, a youth chorus from Nashville. FEDERAL WORKER SUPPORT GROUP

Sunday, June 1, at noon

Clergy and lay leaders will hold space for federal workers and others affected by recent changes to their work environment to offer support during this time of loss and uncertainty. We seek to provide fellowship and support while we engage the depth and strength of our faith, making sure no one goes through this alone. Participants may fix a plate at our June 1 parish lunch and then convene downstairs in the dining room. RSVP online at bit.ly/june-1-lunch to help us plan.

CELEBRATE PRIDE WITH ST. JOHN'S

Sunday, June 1, and Saturday, June 7

On Sunday, June 1, services will feature acknowledgments of Pride and the essential blessings of LGBTQIA+ siblings to the Body of Christ. The 11 a.m. service will include special music sung by the combined St. John's Choir, Parish Choir, and Choristers, and our St. John's Pride group will host Parish Lunch at noon.

On Saturday, June 7, St. John's Pride will join the official diocesan contingent to march in the Capital Pride Parade. Allies and those who identify as LGBTQIA+ are welcome to march with us. We will gather with the diocesan contingent at St. Luke's Episcopal Church (1514 15th Street, NW) at 12:30 p.m. for a brief prayer and instructions before heading to the parade staging area together. The parade begins at 2 p.m.

ST. JOHN'S BOOK GROUP

Thursday, June 5, at 7 p.m.

Please join us via Zoom to discuss North Woods: A Novel by Daniel Mason. A humble cabin in the New England woods becomes the home of an extraordinary succession of human and nonhuman characters alike over decades. The book group typically meets on the first Thursday of the month at 7 p.m. For information and the link, please contact leader Janet Edmond via the online directory at stjohns-dc.org/connect/directory.

PENTECOST IS SUNDAY, JUNE 8

On the Day of Pentecost, we remember the coming of the Holy Spirit to the disciples and the birth of the early church. At St. John's, we will commemorate the day with baptisms at the 9 a.m. service. At 11 a.m., we will recognize and offer thanks for our Christian education teachers. We ask all teachers to be present at the 11 a.m. service as you are able—and all others to join us for this parish-wide celebration.

During the June 8 education hour, all ages are invited to participate in an intergenerational activity: Come make your own suncatcher to hang in a window at home as a reminder of the Holy Spirit's presence in your life. This activity will be offered between the 9 and 11 a.m. services in the dining room and will take the place of Church School. For curious minds, take a sneak peak at the process and results online at bit.ly/june-8-suncatchers.

A LETTER FROM THE RECTOR

I write to share important news from Episcopal Migration Ministries (EMM). As you may have seen in the news, EMM will be ending its role in federally funded refugee resettlement by the end of this fiscal year. This difficult decision comes in response to changes in federal policy that conflict with our Church's deep commitment to racial justice and welcoming the stranger.

Over the past four decades, EMM (episcopalmigrationministries.org) has helped resettle nearly 110,000 refugees from around the world who have fled war, persecution, and violence. St. John's has been a part of this mission. Many of you were directly involved in sponsoring an Afghan family through EMM's Sponsor Circle program, making a real difference in their lives.

While this chapter for EMM is closing, our work of welcome continues. The Episcopal Church—and St. John's—will remain actively engaged in supporting migrants and refugees through community partnerships, education, and advocacy. This summer, the Refugee Committee will host its annual school supply drive for refugee youth, and we will offer opportunities for supporting immigrant neighbors on an ongoing basis.

Additional ways to be engaged in this vital ministry of the Church include:

- Read Presiding Bishop Sean Rowe's statement about the decision and learn what options are being explored: bit.ly/emm-sean-rowe
- Read a response from EMM's director, the Rev. Sarah Shipman, about the decision: bit.ly/emm-sarah-shipman
- Listen to a Speaker Series presentation hosted by the Refugee Committee to learn about the history and current policies for humanitarian protection: bit.ly/speaker-series-refugee-policy
- Contact Lacy Broemel, chair of the Refugee Committee, to get involved in welcoming work through St. John's: stjohns-dc.org/connect/directory/refugee-committee/

Faithfully,
Rob+

WELCOME!

At St. John's Church, we believe Christ is calling us to be a renewed church in a changing world. Empowered by the Spirit of God, we respond to Jesus' call as we deepen our bond with Christ through worship, become a community where all are accepted, and work together as laity and clergy to do God's work in the world.

St. John's was organized in 1815 to serve as a parish church for Episcopalians residing in the neighborhoods in the west end of the District of Columbia. Its cornerstone was laid on September 14, 1815, and it was consecrated on December 27, 1816. Beginning with James Madison, every person who has held the office of President of the United States has attended a service at the church. Several Presidents have been communicants. Thus, St. John's is often referred to as the "Church of the Presidents." Pew 54 is the President's Pew. The architect of the church was Benjamin Henry Latrobe, who assisted in the rebuilding of the U.S. Capitol and the White House after the War of 1812. Twenty-five of the stained glass windows in St. John's were designed and executed by artisans of the noted Lorin firm of Chartres, France.

If you are visiting, please fill out the visitor information card found at the end of each pew to enable us to welcome you personally into the life of our parish.

St. John's website (www.stjohns-dc.org) has up-to-date information about the church including the Sunday service schedule, Speaker Series speakers and topics, and newsworthy events.
