Collect

Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, that we may continually be given to good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Amos 5:6-7, 10-15

Seek the Lord and live, or he will break out against the house of Joseph like fire, and it will devour Bethel, with no one to quench it. Ah, you that turn justice to wormwood, and bring righteousness to the ground! They hate the one who reproves in the gate, and they abhor the one who speaks the truth.

Therefore because you trample on the poor and take from them levies of grain, you have built houses of hewn stone, but you shall not live in them; you have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink their wine. For I know how many are your transgressions, and how great are your sins—you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe, and push aside the needy in the gate. Therefore the prudent will keep silent in such a time; for it is an evil time. Seek good and not evil, that you may live; and so the Lord, the God of hosts, will be with you, just as you have said. Hate evil and love good, and establish justice in the gate; it may be that the Lord, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

Psalms 90:12-17

- 12 So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.
- 13 Return, O Lord; how long will you tarry?
be gracious to your servants.
- 14 Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the morning;
so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.
- 15 Make us glad by the measure of the days that you afflicted us and the years in which we suffered adversity.

- 16 Show your servants your works and your splendor to their children.
- 17 May the graciousness of the Lord our God be upon us;
prosper the work of our hands;
prosper our handiwork.

Hebrews 4:12-16

The word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account.

Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Mark 10:17-31

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: ‘You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.’” He said to him, “Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.” Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, “You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.” When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!” And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” They were greatly astounded and said to one another, “Then who can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.”

Peter began to say to him, “Look, we have left everything and followed you.” Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.”

All persons, including children, are welcome to receive Holy Communion with us. Wait for an usher to dismiss your row. A priest, who has washed his or her hands immediately prior, will place a blessed wafer into your hands. Keep your mask on and proceed to the wine.

Blessed wine in small paper cups on a tray will be offered by a lay server. After taking the wine, take a few steps and briefly remove your mask to consume the bread and the wine, then place the cup in the basket at the end of the line. The cups will be reverently disposed of after the service. Receiving the bread only is a valid way to share in Holy Communion. Parents may decide if their children receive the bread and/or wine. Children may instead signal their desire to be blessed by the priest by crossing their arms over their chest.

ALL SAINTS SUNDAY REMEMBRANCE OF THOSE WHO DIED IN THE PAST LITURGICAL YEAR

The deadline for sending in names is Monday, November 1.

The names of those who have died during the past liturgical year (since November 1, 2020) will be listed in our All Saints Sunday Service bulletin on November 7.

If you would like a name included in this remembrance, please email RJ Gravina at rj.gravina@stjohns-dc.org

SPEAKER SERIES SCHEDULE

The Speaker Series will be held in person on the following Sundays in the Church or Togo West Parlor from 10:05 a.m. to 10:50 a.m. After the discussion, there will be opportunity for Q&A. There will be no livestream Zoom option. An audio recording will be available in the weekly newsletter The Word and the Speaker Series recording page of our website (here <https://bit.ly/sjSSAud>) the week after each talk.

- October 17: Mike Molina, Head of School of the Bishop John T. Walker School for Boys, Washington's only tuition-free, Episcopal school which serves families east of the Anacostia River. He will be speaking about the urgent opportunity to make generational impact through investment in the potential of African American boys by sharing his own journey from troubled youth to Yale Law School graduate.
- October 24: Dr. Rebecca Carter-Chand, Director of the Programs on Ethics, Religion, and the Holocaust at United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. She will speak on Religion and the Holocaust.
- November 21: David Silverman, Professor at The George Washington University. He specializes in Native American, Colonial American, and American racial history. He will speak on The "Real" Story of Thanksgiving.
- December 12: Lonnie G. Bunch III, Secretary of the Smithsonian and former Director of the Smithsonian's National Museum of African American History and Culture. As Secretary, he oversees 19 museums, 21 libraries, the National Zoo, numerous research centers, and several education units and centers.

Visit the Speaker Series webpage at bit.ly/SJSpeakerSeries for more information.

OCTOBER LATROBE YOUNG ADULT GATHERING

Wednesday, October 13 at 7:00 p.m.

The Latrobe Young Adult Fellowship, an active and engaged group of adults primarily in their 20s and 30s, invite you to join us for an outdoor eucharist celebration and fellowship. We will use the opportunity to welcome and get to know our new Interim Associate Rector, the Rev. Doug Kirby. Please register here for directions: <https://bit.ly/3kpLx0Q>.

DIAPER DRIVE

When members of the St John's Book Club read Broke in America: Seeing, Understanding, and Ending US Poverty, most were surprised by simple resolutions with potential high impact for reducing poverty right here in our own DMV communities. Authors point to the disproportionate impact on women created by a lack of disposable diapers and period products. To address these challenges, the book club is sponsoring a diaper drive from October 8 through October 31. Look for us at the Ministry Fair on October 10 to discuss the book club and this diaper drive.

Donations will be accepted, either at the church on Sundays, October 10, 17, 24 and 31, or at the home garage of Holly Sukenik, by appointment between October 8 and October 31. Products may be ordered online, such as from Amazon. Please contact Holly Sukenik at hsukenik@hotmail.com.

Targeted items:

- Diapers, especially size 4 and 5, and pull-ups.
- Ancillary items, such a baby wipes.
- Period products, especially pads.

Donations can be made in products, checks or by credit card. Checks would be made payable to the Greater DC Diaper Bank (GDCDB).

CHORAL EVENSONG

Thursday, October 21, at 5:15 p.m.

We're pleased to add a monthly service of Choral Evensong to our worship offerings. Steeped in the beauty of the Anglican tradition, Evensong meets us at the even point between the active day and the restful night. Evensong will be sung by the St. John's Choir on the third Thursday of each month from October through May, beginning at 5:15 p.m. Please mark your calendar and plan to join us for this special new offering.

NURSERY HOURS

Sundays, 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Parish House Second Floor

The nursery will meet in the Godly Play Classroom #2 on the second floor of the Parish House. Please note that infants and children are welcome at all worship services. Nursery care will be available from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. every Sunday for infants and children up to age 3. Please register your children here: <https://bit.ly/3yDTVhy>. Reminder: Masks are required for all children over the age of two years.

CONTINUING OUR SACRED GROUND JOURNEY
Saturday, October 30 | Togo West Parlor

We have a number of offerings for the fall to enable us to continue (and, hopefully, expand) our Sacred Ground Journey. Some are listed below, and more will follow shortly.

- On Saturday, October 30, we will hold our first Saturday morning Faith and Race Exploration from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon. The theme will be an exploration of “Truth and Reconciliation” as tool for community healing, and Hazel Monae, who is the bishop’s amazing new Missioner for Equity & Justice, will join us to help guide us through the morning. This will be in-person with a mix of plenary and breakout sessions, and we will provide coffee and lunch. This is open to everyone, regardless of age, and whether or not you attended Sacred Ground. Please sign up here: bit.ly/3zGH7Yr or contact the Rev. Will Morris at will.morris@stjohns-dc.org with questions.

- We will hold a second year of Sacred Ground for those who were not able to sign up last year. Sacred Ground, through readings and videos that are discussed in small groups meeting monthly, creates space for difficult but respectful and transformative dialogue on race and racism (for more details follow this link: bit.ly/3u3kRpT). The program will run from mid-October to July 2022, and a virtual option will be available. If you’d like to talk about the practicalities (as well as how great it is!) some of last year’s group coordinators would be very happy to talk to one on one. Please contact any of the following: Karen Eifert, Holly Sukenik, Andrew Clarke, Joanne Hutton, Jack Reiffer, Carolyn Crouch or Lisa Koehler. To sign up, please contact the Rev. Will Morris at will.morris@stjohns-dc.org.

WELCOME TO FALL

MINISTRY FAIR

Today, October 10, after the 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. services
Celebrating Parish Committees, Organizations, and Activities.

The Ministry Fair is a festive and welcoming way to recruit new people to parish ministries, to give newcomers a chance to see the variety of ministry happening at St. John's, and to meet some of the outstanding lay leaders from our parish.

THINKING ABOUT SCIENCE AND FAITH

Tuesday, October 19 at 7:00 p.m. | Online via Zoom

Would you be interested in exploring the intersections of modern science and theology this next year? Dr. Tony Tambasco, husband of parishioner Anne Stewart and Emeritus Professor of Theology at Georgetown University, has graciously offered to facilitate a study group and discussions. We expect to meet virtually by Zoom, and an organizational meeting will take place on Tuesday, October 19 at 7:00 p.m. The text we will use is John F. Haught's Science and Faith: A New Introduction, Paulist Press, 2012. The church has a few copies, and it is readily available for order online. If you are interested in joining, please email Joanne Hutton at joannerhutton@gmail.com, with Science and Theology study group in the subject line.

WORSHIP LEADERSHIP TRAINING

(NEW DATE) Saturday, October 23, 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon
Church

St. John's clergy and lay leaders will be hosting a morning of prayer, retreat, and training, for all who currently serve or who would like to be trained to serve in the Sunday worship services. This includes crucifers, acolytes, lectors, chalice bearers, flower guild, ushers, livestream broadcasters, and greeters. If you are interested in learning more about helping with any of these roles, please join us October 23. Register here: bit.ly/3hXCimJ. For more information, please contact Holly Sukenik at hsukenik@hotmail.com.

SUNDAY FELLOWSHIP: LUNCH ON THE PLAZA

In lieu of resuming our Sunday Parish Lunch tradition in the dining room, and in order to comply with Covid-19 safety and health guidelines, St. John's is requesting hosts for informal lunch hour receptions outside, on the plaza, after the 11:00 a.m. service. Your help is needed to offer this fellowship opportunity featuring finger food on the plaza. Hosts may be reimbursed for expenses or receive a tax receipt. The Bishop Walker School will host the lunch on October 17. All other Sundays are open. To sign up, select a date, and receive guidelines, please contact Holly Sukenik at hsukenik@hotmail.com.

SING WITH THE PARISH CHOIR

The Parish Choir is a group of dedicated volunteer musicians who provide choral music for the 9:00 a.m. worship service and for special events throughout the year. The choir rehearses on Thursday evenings from 7:00-8:30 p.m. with a light dinner provided at 6:30 p.m. There is a straightforward voice trial prior to joining, but the main qualifications are a commitment to the schedule and enthusiasm for serving our church through its music ministry. Please be in touch with Brent Erstad, Director of Music and Organist, at Brent.Erstad@stjohns-dc.org to learn more.

BUILDING COMMUNITY: OUTDOOR SOCIAL GATHERINGS

To comply with safe Covid restrictions, St. John's will sponsor outdoor community events that connect parishioners away from the church campus. Options include cocktail parties on patios, brunches or suppers outdoors, picnics at parks, happy hour at a local establishment with an outdoor area, hikes, and bird watching.

- Hosts will determine the type of activity they want to organize.
- Hosts will choose a date.
- Hosts will establish the number of guests they can accommodate.

We recommend that you set and advertise a limit (e.g., space is limited so the first 20 responses will be accepted.) If you are interested in hosting, please contact Holly Sukenik at hsukenik@hotmail.com.

BAPTISM SERVICES

The next dates for Baptism and required pre-baptismal classes with the clergy are as follows:

- Baptism: Sunday, November 7, 9:00 a.m.
Class: Saturday, October 30, 10:00 a.m.
- Baptism: Sunday, January 9, 11:00 a.m.
Class: Saturday, January 8, 10:00 a.m.
- Baptism: Sunday, February 27, 6:00 a.m.
Class: Saturday, February 26, 10:00 a.m.

Please note that the parents or grandparents of children being baptized must be active, pledging members of St. John's. Adults interested in baptism for themselves must attend the Rector's Adult Inquirers' Class and be active, pledging participants in the life of the parish. If you are interested in having a child baptized, or in baptism for yourself, please contact Kaye Edwards at kaye.edwards@stjohns-dc.org.

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

Stewardship season is under way and you should soon see a letter in your mailbox from me on behalf of the Stewardship Committee. If you would like to join the committee, please send me an email at tooby@columbiastrategies.com. Whether you are new to St. John's or a 50-year member of this church, we are very blessed to have you involved in this community of faith—and we hope St. John's has been a blessing to you. We ask that you make a pledge in the 2022 campaign so that we may plan for a vibrant and growing set of ministries in the new year. Any pledge amount you are able to make would be appreciated, but if you are able to pledge even more than this past year we hope you will do so. Thank you for considering!

Chair, Stewardship Committee

ONLINE DONATIONS

If you would like to make an offering, you may do so online at <https://bit.ly/SJCLGive> or by scanning the QR code below. In the "Fund" drop down menu, please select the fund to which you would like to donate.

UPDATE FROM THE REFUGEE COMMITTEE

The Refugee Committee is eagerly awaiting the assignment of an Afghan refugee family to support through the Lutheran Social Services' Good Neighbor program. Until that time, we are supporting community-wide efforts to welcome incoming Afghani refugee families with open arms in all the ways we can. To find out more about the ongoing work of this committee, please contact Jessica Sanchez at jesspulsifersanchez@gmail.com.

HONOR YOUR LOVED ONES WITH FLOWERS

You can recognize your loved ones or a special event with a dedication in our Sunday bulletin when you make a contribution to the Flower Fund. In doing so, you invite the congregation to participate in remembering a loved one, a birth or birthday, or a wedding, anniversary, graduation, or other special event.

St. John's Flower Guild lovingly arranges flowers each week for our Sunday services. You can choose to dedicate the two main altar arrangements with a contribution of $110, the side chapel for $55, or the narthex for $55. Or, you can dedicate all four arrangements in the church for $220.

Payments can be made online at <http://bit.ly/SJCLGive> by choosing Sunday Flowers in the dropdown menu.

Welcome!

AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH, we believe Christ is calling us to be a renewed church in a changing world. Empowered by the Spirit of God, we respond to Jesus' call as we deepen our bond with Christ through worship, become a community where all are accepted, and work together as laity and clergy to do God's work in the world.

ST. JOHN'S WAS ORGANIZED IN 1815 to serve as a parish church for Episcopalians residing in the neighborhoods in the west end of the District of Columbia. Its cornerstone was laid on September 14, 1815, and it was consecrated on December 27, 1816. Beginning with James Madison, every person who has held the office of President of the United States has attended a service at the church. Several Presidents have been communicants. Thus, St. John's is often referred to as the "Church of the Presidents." Pew 54 is the President's Pew. The architect of the church was Benjamin Henry Latrobe, who assisted in the rebuilding of the U.S. Capitol and the White House after the War of 1812. Twenty-five of the stained glass windows in St. John's were designed and executed by artisans of the noted Lorin firm of Chartres, France.

IF YOU ARE VISITING, please fill out the visitor information card found at the end of each pew to enable us to welcome you personally into the life of our parish.

ST. JOHN'S WEBSITE WWW.STJOHNS-DC.ORG has up-to-date information about the Church including the weekly calendar, the Sunday service schedule, Speaker Series speakers and topics, and newsworthy events.
