

Midweek Music

Inspiration on your lunch break

All concerts are open to the public without charge and run approximately 35 minutes in length. If you would like to make a donation to support future Midweek Music programs, please contact the church office.

October 5 | 12:15 p.m.

The U.S. Army Chorus

An series favorite, the U.S. Army Chorus maintains a reputation of musical excellence in support of senior government and military leadership while also providing inspiration for the American people.

February 1 | 12:15 p.m.

Howard Gospel Choir

Founded in 1968, the Howard Gospel Choir is the first collegiate gospel choir of its kind in the world. They appear at St. John's in a special performance to kick off Black History Month.

November 2 | 12:15 p.m.

Victoria Requiem

In a special offering for All Souls' Day, a chamber ensemble made up of members of the St. John's Choir present Tomás Luis de Victoria's stunning Requiem for six voices.

March 1 | 12:15 p.m.

Karl Robson, organ

Karl Robson is Director of Music Ministries at St. Johns Episcopal Church, Norwood Parish in Chevy Chase MD. He holds the Doctor of Music from the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, NY.

December 7 | 12:15 p.m.

Air Force Strings

The official string ensemble of the U.S. Air Force, the Air Force Strings are stationed at Joint Base Anacostia-Bolling, and are made up of 17 active duty musicians performing a wide range of styles.

April 5 | 12:15 p.m.

Leçons des Ténèbres

In a special offering for Holy Week, sopranos Kaitlyn Brown Jackson and Margot Rood are joined by organ and cello in a performance of Francis Couperin's poignant Leçons des Ténèbres.

January 4 | 12:15 p.m.

Navy Sea Chanters

The official chorus of the United States Navy, the Sea Chanters are frequently found at the center of our most important national events including inauguration day performances and state funerals.

May 3 | 12:15 p.m.

Celtic Aire

The premier folk ensemble of the United States Air Force Band, Celtic Aire is formed of musicians from the Singing Sergeants. They delight with traditional Celtic folk songs and music of the British Isles.

